

Medicines for babies

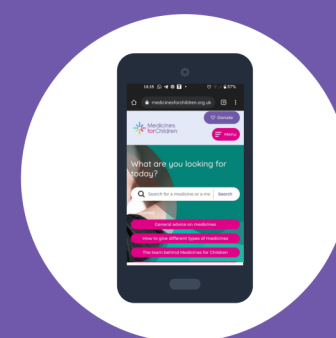

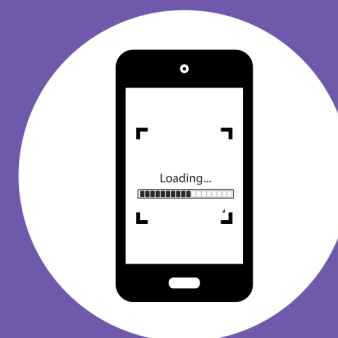

Medicines for Children provides practical and reliable information about more than 220 medicines that are used for children. In developing the information, Medicines for Children worked alongside families and carers to address frequent questions, such as how and when to give the medicine, what to do if you forget to give the medicine, and any possible side-effects.

Scan the QR code to explore the Medicines for Children website.

How to use QR codes

- Open your phone camera or get a free QR scanner from the app store.
- Point your camera or scanner at your chosen QR code.
- Click on the icon or banner that appears on screen.
- The information will automatically download.

General advice

General advice
about antibiotics

General advice
about medicines

How to give liquid medicines (oral syringe, no bung)

How to give liquid
medicines (oral syringe with bung)

How to give granules and powders

Medicines (alphabetical order)

Chlorothiazide
for chronic lung disease, heart failure, ascites and high blood pressure

Clotrimazole
for fungal infections

Gaviscon
for gastro-oesophageal
reflux disease

Phosphate
supplements
for hypophosphataemia

Sodium chloride
for hyponatraemia

Sodium feredate
for the prevention of anaemia

Spironolactone
for heart failure